Big Picture Bible Study

During the Time of Trouble, like gold, we are purified to see the face of God.

The Third Veil

When man stands in the presence of God, His perfect glory will consume all sin. For this reason, His literal and physical presence has been veiled from sinful man to protect us while probation is still open. Moses stood in His presence and had to put a veil oh his face—when we have been in the presence of God, our faces will shine with the glory of God... and we will not be consumed (Exodus 34:29)!

- Deuteronomy 4:24 (Heb. 4:4) our God is an all-consuming ______
- Isaiah 59:2 because of sin, the face of God has been ______ from us

 Exodus 33:20 no sinful man can see the ______ of God and live

The sanctuary is a symbolic model of God's plan to bring us back into His presence; each of the three veils represents a way that humanity was separated from the face (or the ______) of God.

- Outer Veil "The Gate" this symbolic veil represents our separation from God's sacrifice: Altar of Sacrifice: to be in His physical presence now requires
- Laver: to enter into the Sanctuary of God now requires Middle Veil "The Door" this symbolic veil represents our separation from God's relationship:
- Altar of Incense: we no longer have open-faced ______ with God
 7-branched Candlestick: we may no longer see the ______ of His face
- Inner Veil "The Veil" this symbolic veil represents our separation from God's character: • Ark of the Covenant: we do not understand the nature of His law and character

These symbols were given to Israel to direct their attention to their own need for a Messiah. Jesus' life and death opened up the possibility for the reversal of this process of separation represented by these three veils. When the model earthly Sanctuary was closed it was symbolic that the ______ veil was lifted.

- II Corinthians 4:6 we have the ______ of God's glory in Jesus
- Hebrews 7:25 Jesus now lives to make ______ on our behalf Romans 10:17 through the ______ of God, we now may have faith

The lifting of the Middle Veil allows us to, in faith, follow Jesus as His brothers into the Holy Place of the Heavenly Sanctuary where He ministered from 31 A.D. to 1844 A.D. and spiritually access the articles of furniture located there. When He moved into the Most Holy Place, the ______ veil was lifted.

- Revelation 7:9-13 Jesus the Lamb is brought before the throne in Heaven at the beginning of the judgment that began in 1844 (the true Day of Atonement)
- Revelation 11:18-19 at the outset of the judgment, the Ark is seen in Heaven
 As of 1844 two of the three veils were lifted and we had understanding of the

As of 1844, two of the three veils were lifted and we had understanding of the word, light of the gospel, prayer in open connection, and faith that leads to obedience to the 10C law—the standard for the judgment. Now only one veil stands between us and the physical, literal, and all-consuming presence of God.

 Our spiritual marriage is a done and a daily 	Even though only one veil remains, there is good news! Those who have been chanoing contribution the Sanctuary will be changed literally when the final veil	Even though only one ventremains, there is good news: Those who have been changing spiritually in the Sanctuary will be changed literally when the final veil is lifted and we see Jesus returning in the clouds at the Second Coming.	 I Corinthians 15:51-54 – when Jesus returns we will be 	The unveiled face of Jesus will shine upon all. The wicked will be destroyed and the righteous will be instantly changed into perfect bodies. We who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who has paid the penalty for death (Altar) He will wash us clean (Laver) of our sins by His blood. This is the lifting of the veil that spiritually gives us access to the symbolic furniture in the Outer Court. This coincides with the lifting of the veil that has separated us from the face of God.	Revelation 22:3-4 – we will see God face-to-face and not be	The Time Of Trouble (TOT) It is necessary to first understand a very important question: does God cause the trouble in the world? Is He the reason why so many terrible things happen?	 Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whom has bound" Matthew 13:27-28 – Jesus makes it clear that "an has done this" 	These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are	 The controversy in the end of time will be over God's	The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events:
 Isaih 25:7.9 - the final veil has been cast over people of earth Even though only one veil remains, there is good news! Those who have been changing spiritually in the Sanctuary will be changed literally when the final veil is lifed and we see Jesus returning in the clouds at the Second Coming. I Corinthians 15:51-54 - when Jesus returns we will be	 I Corinthians 15:51-54 - when Jesus returns we will be	 I Corinthians 15:51-54 - when Jesus returns we will be	The unveiled face of Jesus will shine upon all. The wicked will be destroyed and the righteous will be instantly changed into perfect bodies. We who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who have tried to gives us access to the symbolic furniture in the Outer Court. This coincides with the lifting of the veil that separated us from the face of God. • Revelation 22:3-4 - we will see God face-to-face and not be the world? Is He the reason why so many terrible things happen? It is necessary to first understand a very important question: does God cause the trouble in the world? Is He the reason why so many terrible things happen? Matthew 13:27-28 - Jesus makes it clear that "anhas done this" These two pasages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The controversy in the end of time will be over God's	The Time Of Trouble (TOT) It is necessary to first understand a very important question: does God cause the trouble in the world? Is He the reason why so many terrible things happen? • Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whom has bound" • Matthew 13:27-28 – Jesus makes it clear that "an has done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • Deception #1: • Deception #1: • Deception #2 *	The Time Of Trouble (TOT) It is necessary to first understand a very important question: does God cause the trouble in the world? Is He the reason why so many terrible things happen? • Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whomhas bound" • Matthew 13:27-28 – Jesus makes it clear that "anhas done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • Deception #1: • Deception #1: • Deception #2 *	 Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whomhas bound" Matthew 13:27-28 – Jesus makes it clear that "anhas done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are The controversy in the end of time will be over God's Deception #1: Deception #2 The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: 	These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • The controversy in the end of time will be over God's • Deception #1: • Deception #2 The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: •	 The controversy in the end of time will be over God's	The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events:
 Isaida 25:7.8 - the final veil has been cast over people of earth Even though only one veil remains, there is good news! Those who have been changing spiritually in the Sanctuary will be changed literally when the final veil is lifted and we see Jesus returning in the clouds at the Second Coming. I Corinthians 15:51-54 - when Jesus returns we will be reliant the righteous will be instantly changed into perfect bodies. We who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who have tried to see Jesus 'the symbolic turniture in the Outer Court. This coincides with the lifting of the veil that spiritually grave us access to the symbolic turniture in the Outer Court. This coincides with the lifting of the veil that spiritually the the true out of the world'. Ike 13:16 - Jesus speaks of the sick woman 'uhom has bound''. Luke 13:16 - Jesus speaks of the sick woman 'uhom has bound''. Ike controversy in the end of time will be over God's	 I Corinthians 15:51-54 - when Jesus returns we will be	 I Corinthians 15:51-54 - when Jesus returns we will be	The unveiled face of Jesus will shine upon all. The wicked will be destroyed and the righteous will be instantly changed into perfect bodies. We who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who has paid the penalty for death (Altar) He will wash us clean (Laver) of our sins by His blocd. This is the lifting of the veil that spiritually gives us access to the symbolic furniture in the Outer Court. This coincides with the lifting of the veil that has separated us from the face of God. Revelation 22:3-4 – we will see God face-to-face and not be The Time Of Trouble (TOT) It is necessary to first understand a very important question: does God cause the trouble in the world? Is He the reason why so many terrible things happen? Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "ailom	The Time Of Trouble (TOT) Internet of first understand a very important question: does God cause the trouble in the world? Is He the reason why so many terrible things happen? • Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whom has bound" • Matthew 13:27-28 – Jesus makes it clear that "an has done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • The controversy in the end of time will be over God's • Deception #1: • Deception #2 • Deception #2 • > • > • > • > • > • > • > • > • > • > • > • > • > • > • > • > • > <	The Time Of Trouble (TOT) It is necessary to first understand a very important question: does God cause the trouble in the world? Is He the reason why so many terrible things happen? • Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whom has bound" • Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whom has bound" • Matthew 13:27-28 – Jesus makes it clear that "an has done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • The controversy in the end of time will be over God's • Deception #1: • Deception #2	 Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whomhas bound" Matthew 13:27-28 – Jesus makes it clear that "anhas done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are The controversy in the end of time will be over God's Deception #1: Deception #1: The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: <td>These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • The controversy in the end of time will be over God's • Deception #1: • Deception #2 The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • • • • • The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • • • • • • • • The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories:</td><td> The controversy in the end of time will be over God's</td><td>The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • → and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories:</td><td> → → → → The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories: </td><td>The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories:</td>	These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • The controversy in the end of time will be over God's • Deception #1: • Deception #2 The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • • • • • The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • • • • • • • • The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories:	 The controversy in the end of time will be over God's	The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • → and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories:	 → → → → The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories: 	The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories:
 Isaiah 25:7.8 - the final veil has been cast over people of earth Even though only one veil remains, there is good news! Those who have been changing spiritually in the Sanctuary will be changed literally when the final veil is lifted and we see Jesus returning in the clouds at the Second Coming. I Corinthians 15:51-54 - when Jesus returns we will be	 I Corinthians 15:51-54 - when Jesus returns we will be	 I Corinthians 15:51-54 - when Jesus returns we will be	The unveiled face of Jesus will shine upon all. The wicked will be destroyed and the righteous will be instantly changed into perfect bodies. We who have tried to see Jesus' character replicated in our own, when we see the literal face of He who has paid the penalty for death (Altar) He will wash us clean (Laver) of our sins by His blood. This is the litting of the veil that has separated us from the face of God. Revelation 22:3-4 - we will see God face-to-face and not be veil that has separated us from the face of God. Revelation 22:3-4 - we will see God face-to-face and not be veil that has separated us from the face of God. Revelation 22:3-4 - we will see God face-to-face and not be veil that spiritually gives us access to the symbolic furniture in the Outer Court. This coincides with the lifting of the veil that has separated us from the face of God. Revelation 22:3-4 - we will see God face-to-face and not be veil that has separated us from the face of God. Revelation 22:3-4 - we will see God face-to-face and not be veil that has separated us from the face of God. Revelation 22:3-4 - we will see God face-to-face and not be veil that has separated us from the face of God. Revelation 22:3-4 - we will see God face-to-face and not be veil that has separated us from the face of God. Lake 13:16 - Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whom has bound" Matthew 13:27-28 - Jesus makes it clear that "an has done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are	The Time Of Trouble (TOT) The Time Of Trouble (TOT) Interview of the start of a very important question: does God cause the trouble in the world? Is He the reason why so many terrible things happen? • Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whom has bound" • Matthew 13:27-28 – Jesus makes it clear that "an has done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • The controversy in the end of time will be over God's • Deception #1: • Deception #1: • Deception #1: • Deception #2 The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • •	The Time Of Trouble (TOT) It is necessary to first understand a very important question: does God cause the trouble in the world? Is He the reason why so many terrible things happen? • Luke 13:16 - Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whom has bound" • Matthew 13:27-28 - Jesus makes it clear that "an has done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • The controversy in the end of time will be over God's • Deception #1: • Deception #2 • Deception #2 The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • → • → • → • → • → • → • → • → • → • → • → • → • → • → • → <t< td=""><td> Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whomhas bound" Matthew 13:27-28 – Jesus makes it clear that "anhas done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are The controversy in the end of time will be over God's Deception #1: Deception #2 The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories: </td><td>These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • The controversy in the end of time will be over God's • Deception #1: • The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • • The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • _</td><td> The controversy in the end of time will be over God's</td><td> The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: → → → → → → → → → → → → → → → → → → →</td><td> → → The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories: Time of Trouble – there will be many martyrs and conversions Time of Trouble – there will not be any martyrs or conversions </td><td>The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories: Time of Trouble – there will be many martyrs and conversions Time of Trouble – there will not be any martyrs or conversions</td></t<>	 Luke 13:16 – Jesus speaks of the sick woman "whomhas bound" Matthew 13:27-28 – Jesus makes it clear that "anhas done this" These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are The controversy in the end of time will be over God's Deception #1: Deception #2 The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories: 	These two passages give us clear evidence that the evil in the world is the result of the work of an enemy. It is because of Satan that there is suffering and earth. The parable of the wheat and tares is key because the two are • The controversy in the end of time will be over God's • Deception #1: • The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • • The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: • _	 The controversy in the end of time will be over God's	 The Time of Trouble begins with a specific chronology of events: → → → → → → → → → → → → → → → → → → →	 → → The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories: Time of Trouble – there will be many martyrs and conversions Time of Trouble – there will not be any martyrs or conversions 	The Time of Trouble is a direct result of the rebellion that was started in Heaven and it is literally Satan's last attempt to wipe out God's loyal people and establish his own kingdom. The TOT is separated out into two major time categories: Time of Trouble – there will be many martyrs and conversions Time of Trouble – there will not be any martyrs or conversions

The Little Time Of Trouble (LTOT)

The LTOT is fraught with irony. There are here two classes of people being formed: those who follow the Bible and the law of God and those who follow the laws of man. Many people will be deceived and believe that the whole world is converting to follow God—there will be movements towards unity, peace, love, and temperance. This is believed to be the "Temporal Millennium" on earth. Ironically this move towards God is the largest step away from Him.

- Matthew 10:21-22 we will be ______ by all nations of the world
- Matthew 5:10-12 we will be persecuted but our ______ is in Heaven

What could cause this great move towards unity and peace in our current world? Satan will be finally given full control over the world and those who submit to his laws. He will create a situation where a savior is needed. Imagine a world of global economic bankruptcy, ecological devastation, financial depression, and international war. When the end of the world crisis hits, freedoms are sacrificed for safety and the Elite Enemy will present a solution to the world: we must come together to save ourselves; we must return to morality and worship God.

- Deception #1: the 2C worship dead saints immortality of the
- The "dead" appear and give messages to follow the new world order
- "Angels" appear and give warning not to go against God and His new day
 Deception # 2: the 4C worship on Sunday the holy day is _______
- Because they have received messages from "Heaven," we who reject this new day will be denounced as enemies of God, of His law, and of the state

It is in this situation that Satan does his final, crowning act—he will impersonate Jesus Christ, Himself. He will appear to many, will heal the sick, make the weak strong, save the world from ruin, and tell everyone that they must follow his new day, Sunday. "He declares that those who persist in keeping holy the seventh day are blaspheming his name by refusing to listen to his angels sent to them with light and truth. THIS IS THE STRONG, ALMOST OVERMASTERING DELUSION."

- II Corinthians 11:13-15 Satan can transform himself into an ______
- I Kings 18:17-18 like Elijah, the ______ are blamed for the calamity

Sadly, during the LTOT, the remnant people will be violently persecuted. We will be thrown in jail or forced to hide in mountain caves in abject poverty. Cut off from the rest of the world and unable to buy or sell, many of us will be called before courts and kings and put to death for not following the new world order.

John 14:14 – we will have tribulation, but no need to worry because Jesus has _____the world and we have our reward in Heaven.

However, during all this, we will be filled with the Latter Rain of the Holy Spirit. We will already have achieved victory over self, have confessed all sins, and will be preaching the Loud Cry—it will have effect! Many of Gods' loyal people will hear the message of truth as they have never heard it before and will leave the false churches, will leave the new world order to join the ranks of those who are being persecuted for the plain teachings of the Bible and who speak out boldly against the twisting of God's character and law. Every drop of martyr's blood will be like seed, multiplying the names that are written in Heavens' Book of Life as everyone's final decision is being made. This is the Little Time of Trouble.